"two roads diverged in a yellow wood...

i took the one less traveled by,

and that has made all the difference."

robert frost

the journeys of our lives are chosen here,

for now we stand at crossroads.

but the choices are many, and the ways of our hearts are the only map.

some choose crowded roads,

worn deep into the earth;

so the way is easy, and the end is uncertain.

KEEP RIGHT

some choose less traveled paths,

that only tomorrow knows.

some roads are hard; we need reasons.

some are long; we need hope.

some are lonely;

we need love.

and in the silence of uncertainty
we seek him who is the way, to find our way.
then, in the afterwards of decision,
we walk our road: for today,
for tomorrow, for life.

walk now, with us,

the road of loma linda university.

PROCLAMATION

WILLIAM M. LANDEEN DAY

February 13, 1969

In this age of changing educational values and social mores, and the widening of a somewhat overemphasized, but very real, generation gap, there are some values which remain constant.

Dr. William M. Landeen exemplifies those values. We honor today a man who has given of himself, his intellect, and his physical strength, without stint, to the furthering of all that is meaningful and relevant in education in general, and to Christian education in particular.

In his ten years as a professor and president of this institution, he has endeared himself to students and colleagues alike, not by bombast nor force of will, but through patient, kindly dealings characterized by integrity and Christian forbearance. These are qualities too often found missing on the educational scene today.

It is an honor for me, as President of Loma Linda University, to declare this day WILLIAM M. LANDEEN DAY.

in planning your future . . .

you should be planning for advanced education to meet the challenge of these modern times. At the same time we invite you to consider where you will serve when that training is finished. For no life is complete without service. We invite you to plan for a future in this populous conference where many must still learn of Christ's love and his soon coming.
